

Interconnections: Buddhist Views on the Self, Beings, and Global Harmony 【眾生緣起與世界和睦】

敬邀 中台山加州矽谷分院太谷精舍住持見護法師主講

Modern technology and the internet has effectively created a global community that transcend physical boundaries, a fact that, interestingly, parallels the ancient Buddhist view of a global, interconnected community bound not by blood or culture but by karma (“karma internet”!). That is, since ancient times we have been inter-related by our actions and interactions that span the past, present, and future. We explore and explain this world view and how it brings insights on attaining global harmony.
